Team Leader Housekeeping

Do you have an eye for detail, a passion for quality, and would you like to be part of a strong team? Then you might be the person we are looking for to join our Housekeeping team.

We are looking for a dedicated and responsible employee to clean and prepare guest rooms. The position is 25 hours per week and includes working every other weekend.

Your responsibilities

•Cleaning and preparing rooms.
•Ensuring that all rooms meet our high-quality standards.
•Paying close attention to detail and ensuring that nothing is overlooked.
•Contributing to good teamwork and a positive working environment.
•Taking responsibility for ensuring that the department's standards and procedures are followed.

A role with additional responsibility

Every fourth weekend, you will take on the role of Team Leader. This means you will have additional responsibility for coordinating the work, supporting your colleagues, and ensuring that tasks are completed with the quality and attention to detail we expect.

As Team Leader, it is important that you lead by example and act as a positive role model, both within your own department and in your collaboration with the rest of the management team and colleagues across the organisation.

We expect you to:

•Have an eye for detail and take pride in being thorough in your work.
•Be quality-conscious and understand the importance of maintaining high standards.
•Be responsible, reliable, and able to work independently.
•Be a good colleague who makes a positive contribution to the team.
•Have the motivation and ability to take responsibility and lead by example when working as Team Leader.
•Be able to understand and speak Danish and/or English.

We offer

•A position of 25 hours per week.
•A role with responsibility and opportunities to develop your skills.
•A workplace where teamwork, quality, and commitment are at the heart of what we do.
•A workplace with clear expectations and high standards.
